

Hobbs Holiday Tournament

About the Hobbs Holiday Tournament:

In New Mexico, Hobbs is known for its oil and its Hobbs Eagles Basketball. The Eagles boys team is certainly the all-time leading team in the state and the Hobbs Holiday Tournament has been a huge part. The tournament was started by Ralph Tasker, the National Hall of Fame Coach who was the Eagles Head Coach from the fall of 1949 through 1998. Tasker came to Hobbs shortly after coaching the Lovington Wildcats to the 1949 State Championship. At Hobbs, Tasker started building the teams, starting in grade school. In 1956, Tasker coached his first Eagle Championship Team, and repeated in 1957, and 1958. While the "PRESS" was used some in the early Tasker years, it became a full game tactic for Hobbs by the end of 1956. The "Hobbs Press" is a defense known throughout the nation and is the main characteristic of the Eagles team.

The first Hobbs Holiday Tournament was held in December, 1958. Three nearby Texas teams (Andrews, Seminole, and Abernathy) and four New Mexico teams (Eunice, Lovington, Clovis, and Magdalena) joined Hobbs for the three day event. Abernathy defeated Hobbs for the first championship.

Usually a New Mexico team joined Hobbs in the tournament. Tasker wanted a multi-state event and extended invitations to many schools outside New Mexico. Over the years teams from Texas, Arizona, Oklahoma, California, Utah, and Arkansas have participated. In Texas, every section has been represented at one time or another.

At the tournament, you will usually see only fast paced, high scoring games. Scores in the 40's are rare while scores over 100 are common. In December 1981, Hobbs beat Lawton, Oklahoma 152-46 for a 106 point margin!. In 1994, the game was closer but Hobbs prevailed over El Paso Bel Air 140-107.

In Hobbs, the team bench is at the basket side of the building. There is a constant movement to the scorers table as Hobbs uses all players, and substitutes freely. As a statistician, I would not want to keep "minutes played" in a Hobbs game! They sub at every dead ball, sometimes with five players.
